Our Westpac call centre union representative elected

KEY POINTS:

- Voting for the Finsec Westpac Union Council Call Centre representative was completed last Thursday.
- The two candidates standing for the position were Norie Ape from Inbound Collections Auckland, and Ve Mika from the Auckland Cards Call Centre.
- Ve Mika was elected the successful candidate for the 2008/2009 year.

ACTION:

Delegates: Please circulate this Update around Finsec members in your worksite and pin a copy up on your union notice board.

Call Centre Representative elected

Congratulations to Ve Mika from Auckland Cards Call Centre who has been elected as the Westpac Call Centre Union Councillor for 2008/2009.

The Council is members' leadership team

The Union Council is our union leadership team at Westpac. Elections are an important component of the Finsec democratic process and we thank both Norie Ape and Ve Mika for putting their names forward, and to all members who took part in the election.

Auckland Branch vacancy remains on the Union Council

As no nominations have been received for the position of Auckland Branch Representative, this vacancy remains open.

The Westpac Union Council is meeting today in Wellington and will make a decision on filling this vacancy in accordance with the union rules.

Being a Union Councillor means

- ✓ Taking a leadership role to advance our important issues.
- ✓ Campaigning to make Westpac a Better Bank for staff, customers, and the community.
- ✓ Speaking your mind clearly, but also knowing how to work positively and constructively when you can.
- ✓ Working together collectively.
- ✓ You are prepared to spend up to one day on full bank pay per week on Union Council activities – and some of your own time.
- ✓ You are a current Finsec delegate.

Councillors need members support

Please support your local Union Councillor, and don't hesitate to contact them if there are any issues that you wish to discuss.
